top 10 travel tips

Make A Copy Of Your Passport

Make 2 copies of your passport, give one to a family or friend and keep an extra copy with you when traveling. Be sure to check the expiration of your passport most countries require it to be to be valid six (6) months post travel.

Check Your Cell Phone Coverage

Before traveling always check your with our cell phone provider to ensure you have the right coverage, so you don't rack up a bunch of charges.

Pack Phone Chargers

Pack Phone Chargers and extra cords, when you are traveling to places that are hot, your cell phone battery can drain pretty quickly.

Arrive at the Airport Early

Arrive at the Airport at least two hours prior to your flight for domestic, international flights we recommend three hours. If you are traveling with little ones be sure to allow yourself enough a little extra time.

Purchase Travel Insurance

Purchase Travel Insurance especially when traveling internationally. It is important to note that US health insurance will most likely not be valid in different countries.

Carry On Essentials

Pack essentials in your carry on. Such as, medications, travel documents, a change of clothes, and electronics chargers. Then, if your flight is delayed or canceled, you'll have everything you need to make the most of the unexpected situation.

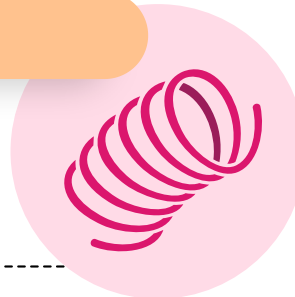

Pack A Reusable Water Bottle

Pack Your Own Water Bottle. You'll save money and reduce waste if you pack a water bottle when you travel. Bring an empty water bottle with you and fill it up once you've gone through security at the airport.

Be flexible

Delays happen so plan for them, if you are traveling with kids, pack a new coloring books, or a book so when delays happen you have something to keep them busy.

Pre-Plan Outfits

Pre-plan your outfits so you aren't overpacking. This will allow you to avoid fees from your luggage being overweight and save room for souvenirs.
